

Sime Darby Sponsored Training with Allowance for Unemployed Graduates

Sime Darby, Malaysia's leading multinational Conglomerate, is offering an opportunity for unemployed graduates to improve their employability through a soft skills training programme. The programme is 100% sponsored by Sime Darby and includes an allowance of RM 750 per participant.

The 2-week programme is designed to bridge the gap between the education and professional world for young graduates. Participants will have the opportunity to not only strengthen their English language and communication capabilities, but also to sharpen their critical and creative thinking, problem solving and presentation skills.

If you are interested and meet the following criteria, please book a slot to this programme with Nurul Izzaty binti Abu Bakar (nurul.izzaty.ab@simedarby.com , 03-7627 0692) and Nur Faezah binti Omar (nur.faezah.omar@simedarby.com , 03-7627 0739) by Friday, 31st March 2017.

Requirements:

- Malaysian aged 27 years and below
